

BIOGRAPHY OF SUSAN O'NEILL

Susan O'Neill is an architect, town planner and lawyer, specialising in heritage conservation with the following academic qualifications:

- Bachelor of Science (Architecture), University of Sydney, 1988
- Bachelor of Architecture (First Class Honours), University of Sydney, 1990
- Master of Heritage and Conservation, University of Sydney, 1996
- Master of Architecture (History and Theory), University of New South Wales, 2000
- Master of Urban and Regional Planning, University of Sydney, 2011
- Master of Environmental Law, University of Sydney, 2014
- Juris Doctor, University of Sydney, 2018
- Accredited Mediator, National Mediation Accreditation System (ongoing)

Susan O'Neill has been a Commissioner of the Land and Environment Court of NSW from 2012.