NOTICE TO PERSON PRODUCING DOCUMENTS OR THINGS

You may produce copies of any documents you are required to produce, unless the notice to produce specifically requires you to produce originals. A copy of a document may be:

- (a) a photocopy; or
- (b) in PDF format on a CD-ROM; or
- (c) in any other electronic form that the party that served the notice to produce has indicated to you will be acceptable.

You must complete the Declaration below and produce this notice to produce containing the completed declaration, or a copy of it, with the documents you produce to the court under the notice to produce.

If you declare that the material you produce is copies of documents, the Registrar may, without further notice to you, destroy the copies after the expiry of a period of four months from the conclusion of the proceeding or, if the documents become exhibits in the proceeding, when they are no longer required in connection with the proceeding, including on any appeal.

If the material you produce to the Court is or includes any original document, the Court will return all of the material to you at the address specified by you in the Declaration below.

DECLARATION BY PERSON PRODUCING DOCUMENTS OR THINGS

[tick the relevant option below, (provide your address as appropriate), sign and date]

When the documents and things are no longer required by the court:

- All of the material I am providing to the Court in compliance with this notice to produce to court is copies of documents. I acknowledge that the Court will destroy the copies once they are no longer required, without further notice to me.
- Some or all of the material I am providing to the Court in compliance with this notice to produce to court is an original document. Once the material is no longer required, all of the material should be returned to me at the following address:
