

Duty Lawyer Scheme

The duty lawyer scheme aims to provide preliminary advice to people who are representing themselves in Court, guiding them through the Court process and referring them to appropriate services. It is the result of a collaboration between the Environment and Planning Law Association, the Environmental Defenders Office, Macquarie University Law School and practitioners from the Land and Environment Court Users Group.

The scheme is focused on assisting litigants in matters within Classes 4 and 5 of the Court's jurisdiction.

- Class 4 includes civil enforcement and judicial review matters
- Class 5 includes criminal matters

The duty lawyer is available every Friday between 9:00 am and 12:00 pm, at Level 4 of the Land and Environment Court.

If you have not yet attempted mediation or would like to make further efforts at settling, a Community Justice Centre Mediator can facilitate this:
